TULKU YESHI RETURNS TO THE RIME CENTER TO GIVE THE AMITABHA EMPOWERMENT AND TEACH ON PHOWA

OCTOBER 28-30, 2022

We are delighted to welcome back Venerable Tulku Yeshe Rinpoche, October 28-30th. Rinpoche will give the Amitabha empowerment and give teachings on the practice of phowa. The Phowa practice, or transference of consciousness at the time of death, is a simple, powerful means of ejecting the consciousness from the crown aperture into Dewachen, the Buddha-field of Amitabha, bypassing the bardos and avoiding rebirth in the six realms of cyclic existence.

Phowa practice is very popular in Tibetan Buddhism. Different Phowa practices are related to different deities. This particular practice comes from Sakya Pandita and focuses on Buddha Amitabha. This practice is very easy and can be practiced every night or when you take a nap. If you do so, then when you die, there is no doubt that you will be reborn in Dewachen, the Pure Land of Buddha Amitabha. Although it is the most accessible of the Six Yogas of Naropa, it is unwise, as with many other Vajrayana practices, to undertake the Phowa without initiation, oral transmission and instruction from a Phowa lineage holder. That is why it is important that participants receive the Amitabha empowerment at the beginning of the teachings.

Tulku Yeshe Rinpoche's teachings will be in-person at St. Marks Hope and Peace Lutheran Church. This event is open to everyone, but please consider being a sponsor for this retreat. Your sponsorship will ensure everyone can attend these wonderful teachings.

ABOUT TULKU YESHI RINPOCHE

Tulku Yeshe Rinpoche is a Dzogchen master and the reincarnation of Dzogchen Gyalt-sab Thodo Rinpoche. He received Tibetan Buddhism teachings and traditional Tibetan medicine from forty-five masters representing all five schools of Tibetan Buddhism.

Tulku Yeshe Rinpoche is a highly trained Lama with an authentic and powerful lineage. He gives teachings and empowerments extensively across North America as well as internationally.

Tulku Yeshe Rinpoche was recognized as the reincarnation of Dzogchen Gyalt-sab Thodo Rinpoche by H.H. Ky-abje Trulshig Rinpoche. In the summer of 2015, a famous Tibetan Terton in Kham, Tenchen Sangngag Lingpa, recognized him as one of the owners of the Terton's treasure Dharma, or Choe-Dag.

Rinpoche has written 14 books in Tibetan, ten of which have been published on the subject of Tibetan Buddhism, meditation, healing, and poetry. He has published three books in English: "A Modern Liberation Odyssey—An Autobiography of a Tibetan Nomad Lama", "Handbook for Half-Buddhas", and "Tibetan Zen". Rinpoche has recorded 5 CD's, including Tibetan Chod. He also writes novels, poetry for mind training and on how to enjoy life.

Tulku Yeshe Rinpoche is a true Rime teacher, having received teachings from all the Tibetan lineages. He has received many teachings from Nyingma masters, primarily from H.H. Trulshik Rinpoche, who received them from H.H. Dudjom Rinpoche and Dilgo Khyentse Rinpoche in an unbroken line of transmission going back to Padmasambhava in the eighth century. From the Sakya School, Tulku Yeshe received teachings from H.H. Sakya Trizin and H.H. Jigdal Dagchen Rinpoche, who had received the teachings from his father, Trichen Ngawang Thutob Wangchuk and from Dzongsar Jamyang Chokyi Lodro, each of whom had received the teachings from an unbroken lineage extending back to the Five Founder Lamas of the Sakya lineage. From the Kagyu School, Tulku Yeshe received teachings from many masters, including H.H. Seventeenth Karmapa, who had received teachings from H.E. Tagu Rinpoche, who had received teachings from the Sixteenth Karmapa in an unbroken lineage extending back to Gampopa, Milarepa, and Marpa.

In the Gelug School, Tulku Yeshe first received teachings from a Gelugpa Master, H.H. Lamo Yongzin Rinpoche, H.H. Gaden Tripa Lobsang Nyima, Drepung Tipa Tenba Tendzin, Lama Zopa Rinpoche, and many other Geshes. And from the Chod school, he received teachings from Dhetheng Shungdung Rinpoche, who received the teachings in an unbroken lineage going back to Machik Labdron. Tulku Yeshe received a second transmission of the Chod Teachings from Trulshik Rinpoche, who received the teachings in an unbroken lineage going back to Padmasambhava. He received a third Chod transmission from Lama Wangdu Rinpoche, who received them in an unbroken lineage reaching back to Machik Labdron and Padampa Sangye.

Daniel Scharpenburg sits at the booth ready to give out brochures and flyers about the Rime Center. We also were giving out pride wrist bands and stickers.

Rime Center's

The Rime Center is so grateful to the efforts of Jeff Yeckel who helped guide and build the lotus pond at the center of the meditation garden. He does work with the Watergarden Society of KC. When asked about why he helped put the lotus pond together, he said, " I thought it would be nice to include a lotus pond since the Buddha was so connected to the lotus plant".

We also want to thank our other volunteers, Gabi Otto, Nicole Esquibel, Andrea Duloc, and others for their help.

Volunteers help to clean up around the pond in the center of the meditation garden. Doug Pursley Andrea Duloc, Gabi Otto, Kelli Kibirige, Mark Albrecht, and Bryan Boring Van Unen.

Meditation Garden

and Pond Dedication

The Rime Center had a dedication ceremony of the meditation garden and pond. It opened with Bird Fleming and others with the Traditional Music Society playing purification and dedication drumming. Ven. Geshe Tsewang Thinley preformed prayers for the dedication.

Khentrul Lodrö T'hayé Rinpoche

The Rime Center was honored to have Khentrul Lodrö T'hayé Rinpoche return to Kansas City to teach on his new book, "The Power of Mind". Having Rinpoche and his translator Paloma back in town was a real blessing. We had a full house at St Mark Hope and Peace Lutheran Church. Thank you to all the sponsors who made the event possible.

The Power of Mind provides the proven path of lojong, or mind training, for changing our experience from the inside out. We will be using his book for our next Bodhisattva Challenge in 2023.

Upcoming Events and Classes

37th Annual World Peace Meditation

At noon Greenwich time, December 31, 1986, men, women, and children around the world gathered to participate in the most comprehensive prayer activity in the history – a planetary affirmation of peace, and love, forgiveness and understanding involving millions of people in a simultaneous global mind link. In 1986 Fred Culver of the World Center For Global Community began this tradition here in Kansas City where it has been held each year since.

The Rime Buddhist Center will host the 37th Annual World Peace Meditation, an interfaith gathering at St. Marks Hope and Peace Lutheran Church in Kansas City, MO.

DECEMBER 31, 2022

- 6:00 am - 7:00 am
- St. Marks Hope and Peace Lutheran Church
- 3800 Troost Ave, Kansas City, MO 64109

Join us as we gather to continue the work that Fred Culver and others around the world began. Affirming for the new year peace, love, forgiveness and understanding.

The program will consist of religious observances from various cultures and faith traditions including Native American smudging, Tibetan Buddhist chanting and meditation, Christian prayer, devotional music, and the Muslim “call to prayer.”
